MOTION FOR ONE WEEK'S FURTHER EXTENSION OF TIME

Defendants, ARROW PATTERN & FOUNDRY CO., an Illinois corporation, and JOHN KUCHAY, having today filed their appearance herein by their undersigned counsel, hereby respectfully move that the Court grant them another short extension of time, consisting of another week, until Friday, March 14, 2008, within which they must answer or otherwise plead to the amended complaint herein. Counsel requires more time to consult with his client relating to complex accounting issues arising out of the alleged indebtedness upon which plaintiff is suing herein. The dispute is also subject to an ongoing grievance proceeding involving defendants and the union representing the corporate defendants' bargaining unit, which defendant Kuchay has been handling pro se, and this factor too has necessitated counsel's closer examination of the matters at issue with his clients.

WHEREFORE, defendants pray that the Court extend their time to answer or plead until next Friday, March 14, 2008, and grant them all other relief to which they may be entitled.
